No experience necessary (minimum age 8)

Location: Mill Valley Ranch • 525 Tynong Road, Tynong North

Coach Kim Dyer of Heartland Equestrian

Kim is an accomplished equestrian trainer, coach and academic rider encompassing kind methods in a range of disciplines. She has over twenty years experience with both children and adults, with international recognition in Straightness Training, and is passionate about intuitive connection, feel and lightness, helping students to reach a harmonious and kind connection with horses. She has taught from pony club level up to grand prix riders and is one of the official educators at the international event, Equitana Australia, for 2020–21. Her passion is to build a beautiful bond between horse and rider in a fun and supportive atmosphere.
